

Namgu's Special Area for Remembrance

Located in Busan, Nam-gu is so proud of its heavenly gifted natural scenery. It is also very famous for the Oryukdo Island as the very symbol of Busan and the world's only UN Memorial Cemetery.

Special Peace and Culture Zone for the United Nations is concentrated in this zone with lots of educational and cultural resources, like College Row, the world's only UN Memorial Cemetery, UN Sculpture Park, Peace Park, Busan Arts Center, and Busan Culture Museum. As a part of the zone, Dangdok Park includes the History Hall of Japanese Colonial Mobilization and the UN Peace Memorial Hall. The zone will have been reborn as a sacred ground of historic and cultural experiences, world peace and freedom protection when the Memorial Street of UN Participation in the Korea War and the UN Memorial Park is completed.

① Peace Park

This park was formed around the UN Memorial Cemetery to memorialize the 2005 APEC summit. It has about 30,000 trees, a green quad, a ground fountain, and a jogging route where people frequently visit for relaxation. A flower-viewing festival and a Mum Flower Festival are held in the park every spring and fall when people can view various kinds of beautiful flowers.

② UN Sculpture Park

Built in 2001, this park has 34 sculptures with the themes of freedom, peace, and unification that were donated by 34 world-leading sculptors from around the world including 21 nations that participated in the Korean War. This sculpture park is a place where children learn the importance of peace. It is also loved by people as a resting place because it has a walking track that is connected to the UN Memorial Cemetery, Busan Museum, and the Busan Culture Center.

③ Busan Cultural Center

Representing Busan as an international culture city, the Busan Cultural Center provides a variety of events including stage performances with the souls of artists, musicals, concerts, and exhibitions.

④ Busan Museum

In this museum, you can see a number of precious relics that show the history and culture of Busan from pre-historic to modern times. The museum is a place where people learn history and culture and take a rest. Under the management of Busan Museum are the Bokcheon Museum, Provisional Capital Memorial Hall, Busan Museum of Modern History, Dongsam-dong Shell Midden Museum, and the Jeonggwan Museum.

⑤ UN Peace Memorial Hall

This hall memorializes the sacrifice of UN soldiers who fought and died for the freedom and peace of Korea and holds the dreams of realizing hope and peace. It is developing into an internationally famous place that symbolizes world peace together with the UN Memorial Cemetery and the UN Special Peace Culture Zone.

⑥ History Hall of Japanese Colonial Mobilization

This hall is a place where you can learn how Korean people were exploited and forcibly mobilized by Japanese imperialists and militarists during the period of Japanese colonial rule. Within the hall, there is a condolence facility, exhibition rooms, information room, theater, auditorium, and a restroom.
